MAP NOT TO SCALE

An aerial photograph of a city landscape. On the left, a dense residential area with many small, brown-roofed buildings is visible. A multi-lane highway runs diagonally across the middle. To the right of the highway is a river. On the far right, a tall, modern, light-colored building with many windows stands prominently. The foreground shows a construction site with various pieces of equipment and materials. The overall scene suggests a contrast between old and new urban development.

ARTIST'S IMPRESSION

An artist's impression of a rooftop garden. The scene features a lush green lawn in the foreground. To the left, a large, dark, circular planter holds a flowering tree with pink blossoms. In the center, a series of dark, tiered planters hold various green plants and flowers. To the right, a white, modern building with large windows and balconies is visible. A white, modern hanging chair with a brown cushion is positioned on the right side of the lawn. The sky is a clear, light blue.
