A LEGACY BUILT ON TRUST.

Cable Corporation of India (CCI), a titan in India's industrial landscape since 1957, was born from a visionary collaboration between the Khataus, our Indian partners, and German giants Siemens and F&G. It has consistently pushed the boundaries of excellence, emerging as a leader in power cables and a respected EPC contractor for Extra High Voltage (EHV) and submarine cable ventures.

In the early 2000s, CCI Projects Private Ltd. was founded with a mission to redefine luxury living for the discerning Indian market. With an unwavering dedication to crafting iconic structures, CCI Projects has brought opulence, sustainability, and future-readiness to Mumbai.

Rivali Park stands as the crowning jewel in CCI Projects' legacy of luxury. From the triumphant launch of Whitespring to the completion of Wintergreen, Rivali Park has welcomed over 900 families into a world of limitless living.
